

Nellcor Puritan Bennett is now the Respiratory and Monitoring Solutions business unit of Covidien and is relocating its operations to Boulder, CO. Our systems are used to monitor, diagnose and treat respiratory disease and sleep disorders, and they provide life sustaining ventilation and oxygen support for patients.

For more information, visit us at www.covidien.com.

CLINICAL RESEARCH MANAGER

Position Description:

The Clinical Research Manager provides project management and leadership skills to plan and execute high quality clinical studies.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Manage clinical program systems and processes.
- Responsible for the ongoing assessment and maintenance of program procedures and documentation.
- Manage and mentor clinical study personnel focused on conducting clinical programs/trials.
- Advise on trial design and strategy.
- Manage clinical trials from start to finish by driving deliverables to completion on time and within budget
- Assist in the development of core clinical documentations (e.g., study plans/strategy, protocols, IC, database and training documents).
- Represent Clinical Research department in cross-functional meetings.
- Develop and manage study budget.
- Develop and execute trial registration and publication objectives.
- Manage activities performed by Contract Research Organizations (CRO).
- Assist with review of clinical data/information and provide oversight of query resolution.
- Position may require some travel.

Basic Qualifications:

- Bachelors Degree in Science/Medical/Health related field required.
- 7+ years experience managing clinical trials.
- Knowledge of applicable regulations and standards for medical devices.
- Experience managing direct reports in a clinical research setting.
- Computer literate with above average knowledge of Microsoft Office applications Outlook, Word, Excel and Microsoft Project software.

Apply to: Deborah.Cason@covidien.com

EEO/AA