

Gevo, Inc. is a high energy, team-oriented organization that is pioneering the advanced biofuels industry. We are looking for a Laboratory Assistant, which will be based in Englewood, Colorado. This role is responsible for assist Gevo's research team by ensuring that critical laboratory needs of the facility are met.

Requirements include:

- At least an associate's degree in Biology, Chemistry or related field.
- Previous laboratory experience is recommended.
- The candidate must be able to independently follow procedures and show great attention to detail
- The candidate for this position must be a team player since a world-class research staff relies on basic laboratory operations to be performed meticulously.

Responsibilities include:

- Preparing buffers, solutions, and growth media.
- Cleaning glassware used for chemical and biological experiments.
- Stacking of pipette tips.
- Assisting in ordering and receiving of laboratory consumables.
- Keeping a meticulously maintained laboratory notebook.

Gevo offers a competitive hourly rate, including a complete benefits package. If interested, please submit a letter of interest, resume and salary requirements to careers@gevo.com or fax to (303) 379-6630.

Principals only please. No phone calls.

EOE