

Clinical Laboratory Scientist/Medical Technologist

The Clinical Laboratory Scientist/Medical Technologist performs and interprets complex serologic tests, provides blood products for patients with antibodies, answers technical questions, maintains inventories, and participates in continuing education and competency programs.

Education: Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a scientific field or equivalent AND MT(ASCP) or BB(ASCP) or equivalent certification required (no exceptions)

Experience: Previous Transfusion Service/Blood Center experience preferred, immunohematology reference lab experience and/or transfusion service experience preferred

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Knowledge of immunohematology and general laboratory testing practices, Manual dexterity, Strong organizational skills, Excellent oral and written communication skills, Detail and accuracy, Ability to lift maximum of 40 pounds, Ability to handle multiple projects.

Shift: Full-time "float" with a mixture of day, evening and occasional night shifts. Monday through Friday, 8-hour variable shifts (day/evening/occasional night) with rotating holidays and on-calls. A shift differential is paid for the float and evening and night work. Full-time benefits.

It is full-time floating position as follows: Monday through Friday, 8-hour shifts that vary (days/nights/evenings) with shared responsibility for holiday and on-call coverage. Pay rate is $22.39 to $26.62 per hour dependent upon experience, with night shift differentials.

Relocation expenses will be the responsibility of the candidate.

Applicants should email resumes to williamsc@reglera.com.